

Products Liability

---

Manufacturers facing liability claims call on Gordon Arata Montgomery Barnett for vigorous defense. These clients' manufactured products have included:

- Construction materials
- Tobacco
- Pharmaceuticals
- Consumer goods
- Medical devices
- Industrial equipment

We work on cases originating in both state and federal court and pursue them through all levels of litigation, from trial to appeal. We advise clients who seek to get legislative relief from soaring liability costs or who attempt to navigate the difficult regulatory waters on product approvals and recalls. Our work on product liability cases has helped us develop a network of expert witnesses across a spectrum of disciplines, a trial advantage that is enhanced by our use of litigation support systems and other state-of-the-art technology.
