

Maritime

---

Gordon Arata Montgomery Barnett is proud to serve the maritime industry with decades of experience dealing with maritime related issues. Our attorneys have worked closely with owners and operators of all types of oceangoing vessels charting the best course forward in a variety of cases and legal situations.

We stand ready to assist you with matters arising from owning and operating oceangoing vessels, inland marine vessels, offshore rigs and offshore equipment. Gordon Arata Montgomery Barnett represents many of the world's leading ship owners, oil and oilfield service companies, supply boat companies, tank farms, and other marine service providers.

Our attorneys have extensive practice with litigation and defense of Jones Act claims and LHWCA claims, among others; we often work with companies handling issues including allisions, collisions, blowouts, towage, OPA 90, chemical and hazardous waste, charter parties, indemnities and liability.