

Doug Rhorer Becomes a Member of the Firm

JANUARY 2, 2018

(New Orleans, LA) – Gordon, Arata, Montgomery, Barnett, McCollam, Duplantis & Eagan, LLC is pleased to announce that James D. “Doug” Rhorer has become a member of the Firm.

Doug Rhorer focuses his practice in the areas of construction law, oil and gas law, and general commercial litigation. In his construction practice, he advises owners, contractors, architects and project managers on a wide range of legal issues, including lien laws, change order disputes, bid protests, acceleration claims and delay claims. He regularly drafts and reviews construction contracts and solicitation documents for both private and public works projects. In his energy practice, Doug represents exploration and production companies and natural gas pipelines in legacy litigation and other environmental matters.

Doug has received numerous awards for his pro bono service including the Pro Bono Century Award by the Louisiana State Bar Association. Last year, he was named a Rising Star by Louisiana Super Lawyers and received the New Orleans CityBusiness Leadership in Law Award. Doug joined the firm in 2011 after earning his J.D. from Loyola University College of Law, where he was a member of the Loyola Maritime Law Journal and the St. Thomas More Inn of Court. Prior to law school, Doug earned his B.A. in History from Louisiana State University. He is admitted to practice law in the state of Louisiana and works in the firm’s New Orleans office.
