

Gordon Arata Montgomery Barnett Ranks Among Law Firms Improving Client Service Performance More Than All Others

APRIL 1, 2021

BTI Consulting Group recently released the results of in-depth interviews with chief legal officers at 350 companies in 15 industries with revenues of $700 million or more. Gordon Arata Montgomery Barnett is pleased to announce its inclusion among the 70 law firms whose clients said had improved client service performance more than all others during the last 12 months, according to BTI.

The 70 firms, including AmLaw Global 50 firms such as Jones Day, King & Spalding and Eversheds Sutherland, were cited for rapidly adapting to clients' redefined needs and circumstances. BTI noted that "client service savvy demanded a combination of keen listening skills and attorney action."

Marion Weinstock, a member of Gordon Arata Montgomery Barnett's management committee said, "We are delighted to be in such good company among this group of standout firms. One of our core values is a commitment to excellence, including excellence in client service as defined by our clients. To be recognized for this is an honor."

BTI Consulting Group is a leader in providing in-depth independent research and strategic consulting to organizations that want to improve performance and drive growth.

Gordon Arata Montgomery Barnett, with offices strategically located in Louisiana and Texas, continues to evolve to meet the demands of its clients across the Gulf Coast and beyond. The firm represents savvy clients across a wide array of practice areas and industries, including energy, construction, finance, banking, real estate, tax, employment, bankruptcy and creditors rights, chemical, manufacturing, maritime, telecommunications and public utilities. The firm is a member of Primerus, an International Society of Law Firms.